Board Action Requested:

I am requesting permission to attend the 2018 National Principals Conference (NPC) in Chicago. This event runs from July 11 through July 13.

Details and ramifications:

As you may remember, I had the opportunity to attend last year's NPC in Philadelphia and to say that it was a career changing experience would be putting it lightly! The workshops I had the opportunity to attend influenced my role at Bullock on so many levels as I have established new routines to interact with students (my book buddies group), staff (new collaboration/PLC routines) and the community (through new social media initiatives). Last year's conference was a fantastic opportunity to network & to Glassboro on the map, and I would love to attend again this year.

An estimate of the costs is outlined below.

- Registration Fee: $495
- Hotel: $224/night
- Flight: Approx $200-250
- Per Diem:

Total Cost: $1,500.00

Positives:

I will be able to turnkey best practices as part of our upcoming inservice opportunities and share with the administrative team.

Concerns: N/A

Other Comments: Enter registration code: SUMMER18 prior to 5/30 and NASSP will deduct $50.00 from the coast of registration.
