RE: Agenda Item for December 13, 2017

Recommend the Board approve changes to the district offered 403(b) plan to allow for hardship distributions.

Loan Repayments for Employees in Qualified Uniformed Service. Notwithstanding any other provision of an applicable Individual Agreement, loan repayments by eligible uniformed services personnel maybe suspended as permitted under Section 414(u)(4) of the Code and the terms of any loan shall be modified to conform with such requirements.

SECTION 5

BENEFIT DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Benefit Distributions At Severance from Employment or Other Distribution Event

Except as permitted under Section 3.6 (relating to excess Elective Deferrals), Section 5.4 (relating to withdrawals of amounts rolled over into the Plan), Section 5.5 (relating to hardship), or Section 8.3 (relating to termination of the Plan), distributions from a Participant's Account may not be made earlier than the earliest of the date on which the Participant has a Severance from Employment, dies, becomes Disabled, or attains age 59 1/2. Distributions shall otherwise be made in accordance with the terms of the Individual Agreements.

5.2 Small Account Balances

Involuntary cash-out distributions shall be made only for Account Balances that do not exceed $1,000 (including any separate account that holds rollover contributions under Section 6.1), and the automatic individual retirement plan rollover requirements of Section 401(a)(31)(B) of the Code shall not apply.

5.3 Minimum Distributions

Each Individual Agreement shall comply with the minimum distribution requirements of Section 401(a)(9) of the Code and the regulations thereunder. For purposes of applying the distribution rules of Section 401(a)(9) of the Code, each Individual Agreement is treated as an individual retirement account (IRA) and distributions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.408-8 of the Income Tax Regulations, except as provided in Section 1.403(b)-6(e) of the Income Tax Regulations. Notwithstanding the preceding, any distributions otherwise required under this section for the 2009 tax year are waived in accordance with the provisions of the Worker, Retiree and Employer Recovery Act of 2008, unless such waiver cannot be accommodated under the Individual Agreement that governs a Participant's Account.

5.4 In-Service Distributions from Rollover Account

If a Participant has a separate account attributable to rollover contributions to the Plan, to the extent permitted by the applicable Individual Agreement, the Participant may at any time elect to receive a distribution of all or any portion of the amount held in the rollover account.

5.5 Hardship Withdrawals

(a) Hardship withdrawals shall be permitted under the Plan to the extent permitted by the Individual Agreements controlling the Account assets to be withdrawn to satisfy the hardship. If applicable under an Individual Agreement, no Elective Deferrals shall be allowed under the Plan during the 6-month period beginning on the date the Participant receives a distribution on account of hardship.

(b) The Individual Agreements shall provide for the exchange of information among the Employer or Employer's agent and the Service Provider(s) to the extent necessary to implement the Individual Agreements, including, in the case of a hardship withdrawal that is automatically deemed to be necessary to satisfy the Participant's financial need (pursuant to Section 1.401(k)-1(d)(3)(iv)(E) of the Income Tax Regulations), the Service Provider notifying the Employer of the withdrawal in order for the Employer to implement the resulting 6-month suspension of the Participant's right to make Elective Deferrals under the Plan. In addition, in the case of a hardship withdrawal that is not automatically deemed to be necessary to satisfy the financial need (pursuant to Section 1.401(k)-1(d)(3)(iii)(B) of the Income Tax Regulations), the Service Provider shall obtain information from the Employer or other Service Provider(s) to determine the amount of any plan loans and rollover accounts that are available to the Participant under the Plan to satisfy the financial need.

5.6 Rollover Distributions

(a) A Participant or the Beneficiary of a deceased Participant (or a Participant's spouse or former spouse who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, as defined in Section 414(p) of the Code) who is entitled to an eligible rollover distribution may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution (as defined in Section 402(c)(4) of the Code) from the Plan paid directly to an eligible retirement plan (as defined in Section 402(c)(8)(B) of the Code) specified by the Participant in a direct rollover. In the case of a distribution to a Beneficiary who at the time of the Participant's death was neither the spouse of the Participant nor the spouse or former spouse of the participant who is an alternate payee under a domestic relations order, a direct rollover is payable only to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity (IRA) that has been established on behalf of the Beneficiary as an inherited IRA (within the meaning of Section 408(d)(3)(C) of the Code).

(b) Each Service Provider shall be separately responsible for providing, within a reasonable time period before making an initial eligible rollover distribution, an explanation to the Participant of his or her right to elect a direct rollover and the income tax withholding consequences of not electing a direct rollover.

5.7 Qualified Military Service Distributions

Any Participant whose employment is interrupted by qualified uniformed service in the military under section 414(u) of the Code and dies or incurs a Disability while so serving shall be deemed to have resumed employment with the Employer on the day preceding such death or Disability and then to have incurred a Severance From Service on the actual date of death or Disability.

Any Participant that takes a distribution from the Plan under Section 414(u) following an interruption in employment that qualifies as qualified uniformed service thereunder may
