Board Action Requested:
Alternative evening high school program requests approval for the addition of Nicholas Tarasevich and Brittany Cox to the AEHS staff.

Details and ramifications:
We have recently been notified that our current staff does not hold the required certifications for some of the courses we offer. To ensure the AEHS program is compliant with state regulations we request the approval of these additional teachers.

Positives:
Parents and students will have access to more course options with properly certified staff.
Increase in the number of staff members helps better cover the students and days needed.

Concerns:
