Board Action Requested:

Consideration to approve amended MOU with Acenda to extend contract through 8/31/23.

Details and ramifications:

Acenda has been contracted to work with 13 students and one class to support mental health needs of tier 3 students. Original contract ran through June. This extension will allow Acenda to continue services for students through the summer. This is funded through Title IV and the funds are available as Acenda started later in the school year than anticipated when originally budgeted.
