- February 25 PLC – Grade Level PLCs were focused on next steps for each grade level based upon their PARCC data analysis

NON-INSTRUCTIONAL:

- Corey Clement Visits Bowe/Home - Corey Clement surprised Thomas E. Bowe students with a special visit on the afternoon of the school's African American Read-In. Students cheered when teacher Jason Kellum, a 2013 GHS graduate, introduced the Eagles running back. Clement is also a 2013 GHS graduate. Both Kellum and Clement also "graduated" from Thomas E. Bowe School. For more about Corey's Visit go to our website - Corey Clement Reads to Bowe Students on African American Read-In Day
- Small Group Supports at Bowe - Bowe School is beginning to offer a variety of small groups throughout the year to help meet the various needs of our students. Small groups offer students an opportunity to share and discuss issues openly with peers who often have similar concerns and life experiences. Student groups are designed to be supportive, short-term, and developmental. Groups are small, confidential, and facilitated by a certified school counselor. Meeting times are usually during lunch; however, if they are not, times will rotate to ensure that students do not consistently miss the same class period. All participants are required to fill out a permission slip prior to joining the group. For more information on the offerings and to access permission slips, visit our website - <https://www.gpsd.us/Page/6526>
