BULLDOG PRIDE

- We held our mentoring event with our 1st and 5th grade students. They had a great time going through different activities and stations showing integrity.
- We hosted a Family Escape Room Event for our school's Family Night. Students visited different areas of the building, completing various activities to earn keys. Once they received all of their keys they visited our photo booth to have their Escape Room Champion photos taken.
- We honored our Bullock Character Award Winners for the month of October who demonstrated the virtue, Integrity. Students were given a letter to share with their families stating that they will be recognized at the board meeting next week!
- We held our Renaissance Kick-off Rally with students. Some members of the Glassboro High School Cheerleading Squad came over to get our students excited about Renaissance.
