Educational Happenings & Community Involvement Activities:

PreK and Kindergarten Placements were released for all registered students on August 3rd. Their placement letter will also include a Newsletter with updated information needed for the J. Harvey Rodgers School. In the month of August, we had a waitlist of approximately 30 students for our PreK program.

On August 23rd, a virtual Elementary Presentation for grades PreK-6 was held for parents to listen to various topics surrounding COVID-19 that pertained to their child's educational experience: Masks and Virtual Learning; School Hours and Buses; Breakfast and Lunches; Air Purifiers; Isolation Areas; the Pledge; Quarantine.

On August 25th, we held an in-person PreK and Kindergarten Orientation. Students were invited into their classrooms with their parents to meet their classroom teacher. We also will be holding a Make-Up Orientation on September 7th for anyone that missed the 25th or any new registrants.

All students will be reporting on September 8th.
