Educational Happenings & Community Involvement Activities:

The J. Harvey Rodgers School has been working closely with Rowan University in welcoming our new Professor in Residence (PIR), Michelle Damiani. At this time, she has submitted an initial report with baseline Data to Rowan University, a staff survey has been developed regarding Professional Development, and a Steering Committee has been established to help support the relationship between J. Harvey Rodgers School and Rowan University/Professor in Residence. She will be working out of the J. Harvey Rodgers School on Wednesdays throughout the 2021/2022 school year.

During the month of October, the Preschool team met in their PLC to discuss Intentional Teaching and state regulations for toiletry in the preschool classroom. The Kindergarten team also met in their PLC to discuss Wit & Wisdom challenges/successes, pacing guides for the grade level, classroom newsletters, and lesson planning.

On October 29th, a Halloween Parade was held at the J. Harvey Rodgers School. Due to inclement weather, an indoor parade was held for staff and students.
