This month they focused on poetry/music. Students explored the elements that make up both art forms and drew parallels between the two. They are ending the unit with students composing their own poems/songs/raps.

During the month of June they began working on a poetry/rap/son writing unit. Students close read and analyzed poems and song lyrics. They worked on poetry hyperdocs and figurative language identification. Students identified and practiced poetic elements in preparation to write their own poem/rap/song. They also watched a TedTalk on Shakespeare vs HipHop lyrics so they could draw the parallel between both poetry and music.
