All Pro Dads Program
Bullock

Board approval for the implementation of the All Pro Dads Program at Dorothy L. Bullock School for the 2025-2026 school year.

Summary: Dorothy L. Bullock School seeks approval to launch All Pro Dads, a nationally recognized family-engagement program designed to strengthen relationships between fathers/father-figures, their children, and the school community. The program uses monthly, structured, research-based discussion sessions that guide dads and students through topics such as communication, responsibility, goal-setting, and positive relationship-building.

Rationale & Benefits:

- Enhances meaningful father and male-role-model engagement in school life.
- Supports the district's Bulldog PRIDE initiative (specifically Parenting with PRIDE) by deepening the connection between home and school and providing parents with resources to reinforce academic, social-emotional, and character development at home.
- Promotes stronger home–school communication, increased family involvement, and improved school climate.
- Provides a replicable model for districtwide family-engagement expansion.

Cost: Annual program fee of $100.00, which includes access to 10 complete All Pro Dads lessons and materials for the school year.

Implementation: The program will be coordinated by Bullock teacher, Mr. Darryl Price, with administrative support from Assistant Principal, Mr. Tim Hagerty. Monthly sessions will occur on-site and will align with district goals and Bulldog PRIDE values.
