Thanksgiving dinner held here in Glassboro. Mentoring in self-worth and being a young lady really boost the girl's egos. They are dealing with strong issues such as fighting, drug use and minimal parental guidance at home to teach them the rights and wrongs.

___ The club's purpose is to help these girls realize they are worth it and they can be a strong success if they have the tools they need. Education importance will be stressed by women speakers in the arenas of different careers. We want to alleviate the negative in these girls' lives and show them the positive.
