Board Action Requested:

Recommending approval of the Varsity Club to be able to auction off Olympic Conference and Tri County Conference banners that have been taken down and replaced with fire resistant add a year banners as a means to raise money for the Varsity Club Scholarships.

Details and ramifications

This request was approved several years ago, but I am making the request again because of the change in business administrator for the district. The Varsity Club plans on marketing the banners at home basketball games and on the district website.
