Short description (title): Out of District Placement of student # 05-08

Submitted by: Danielle Sochor, Chief Academic Officer

Building: Special Services

Proposed cost/amount: $39,775.00

Funded through: District Funds

Grade(s) impacted if any: 10

Board Action Requested: Ratify for an autistic student who is currently attending Durand private school. The student requires a program with a small class size and a personal aide, close monitoring, behavioral support and an augmentative communication.

Details and ramifications: In order for this student to participate as fully as possible in her school environment, she requires a one to one aide for Extended School Year and Regular School Year. The one to one aide will provide the individualized instruction and assistance that data shows benefits this student.

Positives: The program provides behavioral support, close monitoring, development of vocational skills, augmentative communication services, and very small class sizes.

Concerns: NA
