I. Areas Identified for Development of Professional Practice

No.	Areas Identified for Development	Rationale/Sources of Evidence
1	Social and emotional learning (SEL) involves the process through which children and adults acquire and apply the knowledge, attitudes and skills necessary to understand and manage emotions, set and achieve positive goals, feel and show empathy for others, establish and maintain positive relationships, and make responsible decisions. The district will increase the staff capacity for social and emotional learning competences through school culture and climate, discipline, academic achievement, and increased participation in programs with our subgroup populations.	Mental health referrals, student surveys, PARCC subgroup analysis, reading levels, discipline referrals, I&RS and CST Referrals, participation in accelerated class and or programs.
2	To design, develop, and evaluate authentic learning experiences utilizing contemporary tools and resources to maximize content learning and develop skills at the appropriate SAMR model level, incorporating ISTE and NJDOE technology standards into curriculum.	Lesson plans, Curriculum, Lesson observation documentation, student performance, Professional development attendance and hours documentation, SAMR model tool, ISTE standards, NJDOE Technology Standards 8.1 and 8.2
3	To continue to improve student Writing skills through Strategies for Writers measured by benchmarks and common grade level assessments.	PARCC testing results and staff survey continues to reflect a need for PD in the areas of Writing instruction
