Good Morning Danielle,

It was my absolute pleasure working with the Glassboro School District to bring in QPR training. Out of the 73 registered 55 attended, which is a great turn out given the weather. In addition, there were 5 volunteers from the Traumatic Loss Coalition, 3 Disaster Response Crisis Counselor volunteers, and 2 staff from Psychiatric Emergency Screening present for additional support if needed. The following partners were involved to make last night's training a success: Gloucester County Office of Mental Health, NJ Disaster and Terrorism Branch, Gloucester County Superintendent of Schools, Glassboro School District, Glassboro High School, Gloucester County Municipal Alliances, Gloucester County Psychiatric Screening Services (Acenda), Gloucester County Library System, and Traumatic Loss Coalition (Center for Family Services). I can confidently say all of these partners would come together again to support our community.

Thank you for welcoming us into your school!

Becky

Good Morning, Mary!

I hope all is well with you and yours and that you are enjoying a beautiful summer!

I just wanted to mention that I attended the QPR suicide awareness and crisis support seminar last night at GHS and it was excellent.

I do not know who to thank for scheduling it, but I am very grateful that it was available to staff and the community.

The presenters were knowledgeable, organized, and articulate in sharing their material. They provided great support and insight for all.

Thank you very much and have a wonderful weekend!

Lori Kaszupski
