Re: Action Memo
September 21, 2022 Board Meeting

Request Board approval for Jazmyn Salazar to participate in the online Sheltered English Instruction training through Stockton University in place of Allison Struble due to resignation. She will receive 15 hours of mandatory training to meet the guidelines for transitioning to a sheltered instruction model for English Language Learners. The training will take place online and must be completed as soon as possible. Teachers will submit proof of completion through a certificate that is received at the completion of all modules. Teachers will be compensated with a stipend in the amount of $600 upon completion of the course which will be paid through Title II funds.
